Subject: Thank You! America's Pledge Expert Dialogue Materials and Next Steps

Friends,

On behalf of Bloomberg Philanthropies and the Office of Governor Jerry Brown, I am writing to thank you for your participation in – and tremendous contributions to – last week's expert dialogue in San Francisco on the America's Pledge project. We were heartened by the collaborative and creative spirit of this gathering, and look forward to keeping in touch with many of you in the weeks and months ahead as our plans evolve.

As promised, attached please find a summary document containing high level notes from each session, along with a set of corresponding slides. Many thanks to the RMI/WRI teams for pulling these materials together, and for helping to manage and moderate the meeting itself.

Given the nature of this project and the fact that many of our deliverables for America's Pledge are still under development at this time, we ask that you treat these materials as confidential and do not distribute beyond your immediate organizational colleagues.

And although we have already spoken with many of you bilaterally as well as during last week's meeting, please note that we may be reaching out again soon to you and/or your colleagues in order to explore specific action items in greater depth. As we discussed in person, America's Pledge will be most successful to the extent it builds upon and leverages existing analytical efforts where feasible.

One final logistical note: If you are seeking reimbursement for your travel expenses and have not yet emailed your materials, please do so by sending the following items to Tyler Clevenger at tyler.clevenger@wri.org at your earliest convenience:

- Fill out and sign the previously-sent invoice template
- With the invoice, please include scans/screenshots/pictures of itemized receipts (boarding passes [not confirmation emails or credit card statements], train tickets, Uber/Lyft screenshots, hotel receipts)
- Email a scan or picture of a government-issued photo ID (can be license or passport)

For any specific questions related to reimbursement, please reach out to Tyler directly.

Thanks again!
Dan
