Hi Jeremy,

Great to be in touch and glad to hear y'all are joining the Alliance!

On travel, check with Georgetown. If that doesn't work and Dan's ideas don't pan out I can suggest a few others.

On Monday in addition to the Alliance event you should be invited to the opening ceremonies. I can connect you with Amy Davidsen at the Climate Group to make sure you are included. I'll leave it to Alexander to share the latest run of show for the Monday Alliance event. Are you planning to make the joining announcement there or beforehand? It would be good to make sure we are taking full advantage of the opportunity to profile y'all coming onboard so let us know your plans and what we can do to help amplify.

Thanks!

Aimee

Woot woot

Can someone get Jeremy the run of show, latest schedule of events etc as he is coming Monday to rep Gov Cooper and wants to plug into Monday announcement etc

Ps
I get there late Monday night but Maybe Sam can orient you on various happenings

On travel doubtful but call me and I can catch you up on some ideas there

I was out sick yesterday but am back in the saddle now. Update on a couple of fronts:

- I plan to come to NYC for Climate Week. Are there any sources of funding that you are aware of to cover my trip?
- What time is the USCA Gov announcement/conference on Monday? I'm going to try to arrive Monday am in time for that.
- What events, other than the Monday announcement and Tuesday innovative-financing workshop, do you recommend I attend? You mentioned some events on Monday night. I'd like to join you in those if still possible.

Jeremy
