Just glanced and did a little editing. It's very rough.

One key question is what we say about whether it is possible that through our efforts the U.S. can achieve its 2025 target. I lean toward saying "We're working hard to keep the door open – and we encourage others to join us."

Note NC is joining – we should highlight that addition in our communications next week (I think it's the only USCA state Trump won).

Have either of you looked through the materials yet? Am digging into them now...
